

Advent IV

Prelude

Confession and Forgiveness

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

A: People of God, come, gather in the presence of God in all honesty, openness, and sincerity - offering yourself as you are in this moment. {pause for reflection} Father, we confess that You remain faithful to us even in the midst of our own unfaithfulness.

C: Father, You are always reaching out to turn us back when we have turned away. You are constantly offering encouraging words of hope when we falter or become discouraged. You are brilliantly enlightening the dimness of our own understandings and expectations through Your wisdom. Forgive our distractedness and our wanderings. Do not forget or forsake us this day or in the days ahead. In all humility, we come seeking the mercy, compassion and grace You promise through the child in the manger, Jesus, Your gift of our salvation.

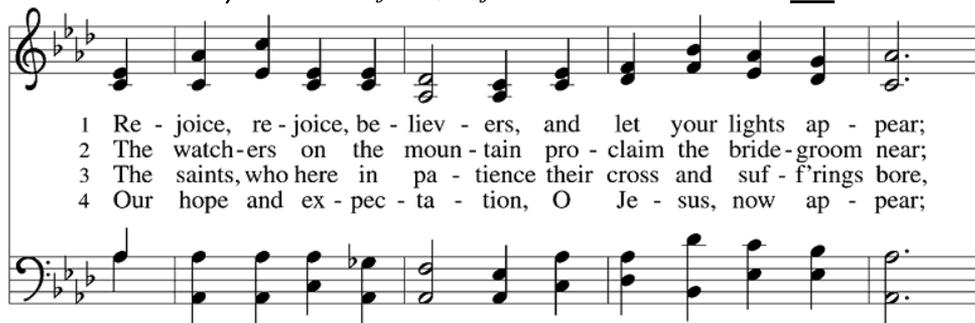

P: The child who came into the world long ago in the simplicity of the manger and who will come again in great glory, is the sign for us that God is with us, now and always, forgiving our sins, liberating us from our limitations and turning us back to living ever more faithfully. With full trust in God's power and intentions to accomplish all the words that God has spoken, let us come now with renewed hearts, minds and souls to offer our gifts of prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P: The Lord be with you

C: And also with you

P: Let us pray:

C: Lord God, we rejoice that you fulfilled your Word of mercy to Zechariah and Elizabeth in the birth of John. Confident that you will be as faithful and merciful to us in our time, we light this fourth candle on the Advent wreath as a continuation of our expectant anticipation of the arrival of your kingdom in the return of your Son. Stir up Your Spirit within us that we will know the blessing of believing in the fulfillment of this Word to us. Amen.

First Lesson

Isaiah 1:2-4

Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth; for the Lord has spoken: I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me. The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its manger; but Israel, Israel does not know, and my people do not understand.

Ah, sinful nation, people laden with iniquity, offspring who do evil, children who deal corruptly, who have forsaken the Lord, who have despised the Holy One of Israel, who are utterly estranged!

Psalm

The Great “O Antiphons” of the Advent Season

These Antiphons are an Advent tradition throughout the Church. Each one begins with a name for Christ and reflects one of his attributes in scripture.

P: O Radix Jesse

C: O Root of Jesse, standing as a sign among the peoples;
before you kings will shut their mouths,
to you the nations will make their prayer:
Come and deliver us, and delay no longer.

Antiphon Hymn

O come, O come, Immanuel, and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

O come, O Branch of Jesse, free,
Your own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell your people save,
And give them vict'ry o'er the grave.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

Second Lesson

1 Peter 5:6-11

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that God may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on God, because God cares for you. Discipline yourselves! Keep alert! Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist that Devil, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And, after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will, Himself, restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To God be the power forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

P: The Holy Gospel according to Luke the 1st chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord!

Gospel

Luke 1:57-80

And the time for Elizabeth to give birth arrives and she gives birth to a son. And her neighbors and her relatives hear that the Lord magnifies his mercy with her, and they rejoice with her. And in obedience to God's Law, it happened on the eighth day that they go to circumcise the child and the people gathered there call him by the name of his father, "Zechariah."

But his mother said, "No! Rather, he is to be called 'John.'"

They said to her, "None of your relatives has this name."

Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him.

Zechariah asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is 'John'."

And all of them were amazed. Immediately, his mouth was opened, and his tongue was freed and he began to speak, praising God. And it came about that fear overcame all their neighbors, and throughout the entire hill country of Judea everyone was talking about these words.

They took all that they were hearing to heart, wondering, "What, then, will this child become?" For indeed, the mighty hand of the Lord was with the child.

Then the child's father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy: "Speak well of the Lord God of Israel, for the Lord has looked favorably on the Lord's people and redeemed them and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of the Lord's child, David, as the Lord spoke through the mouth of the Lord's holy prophets from of old, that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us. The Lord has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors, and has been caused to remember the holy covenant, the oath that was sworn to our ancestor, Abraham, to grant that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies, might worship the Lord without fear, in holiness and righteousness before the Lord all our days. And you, child, will be called, "The Prophet of the Most High." For you will go before the Lord to prepare The Way - to give knowledge of salvation to the Lord's people by their liberation from their sins. By the tender mercy of our God, the sunrise from the heights will watch over us to shine light on those in darkness and those sitting in death's shadow - who guides our feet into the way of peace."

The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he was manifested to Israel.

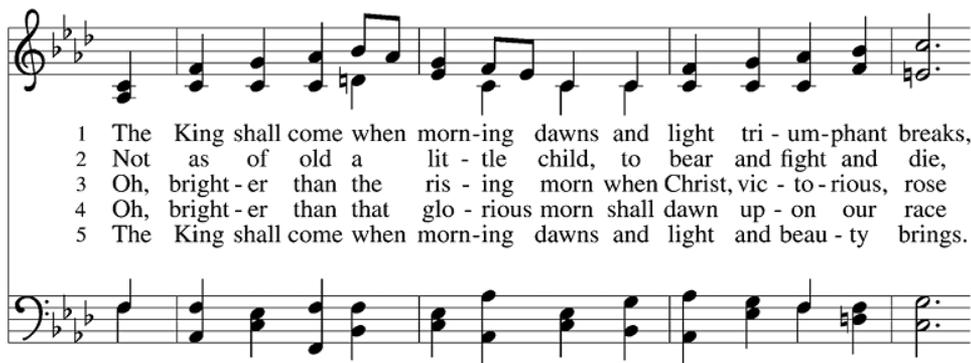

P: The Gospel of the Lord! C: Praise to you, O Christ!

Hymn of the Day

The King Shall Come

260

1 The King shall come when morn-ing dawns and light tri - um-phant breaks,
2 Not as of old a lit - tle child, to bear and fight and die,
3 Oh, bright - er than the ris - ing morn when Christ, vic - to - rious, rose
4 Oh, bright - er than that glo - rious morn shall dawn up - on our race
5 The King shall come when morn-ing dawns and light and beau - ty brings.

when beau - ty gilds the east - ern hills and life to joy a - wakes.
but crowned with glo - ry like the sun that lights the morn-ing sky.
and left the lone - some place of death, de - spite the rage of foes.
the day when Christ in splen - dor comes, and we shall see his face.
Hail, Christ the Lord! Your peo - ple pray: come quick - ly, King of kings.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory & Offertory Prayer

1. We three kings of Orient are;
bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

*O, star of wonder, star of light,
star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light.*

A: Let us pray:

C: In the midst of this season of preparing to give and receive, we humbly offer these gifts to you, Father, in grateful acknowledgment of the myriad of blessings we have known in our past, know on this day, and are yet to know in the advent of the age to come. We pray that you find our offerings acceptable and pleasing for the sake of your great gift to us, the child in the manger, Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

5. Glorious now behold him arise;
King and God and sacrifice:
Alleluia, Alleluia,
sounds through the earth and skies.

*O, star of wonder, star of light,
star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light.*

Great Thanksgiving

P: The Lord be with you. C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts. C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: We give you thanks, Heavenly Father, for the coming of Your Son, the incarnate; born into our humanity to be Emmanuel, God with us, the gift you give for our salvation. Come now, and hear our voices as we join the heavenly chorus in singing his praises:

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the new-born King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo
Gloria in excelsis Deo!

P: Holy God, beginning and end, you embrace all time . . .

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
