

Advent IV

Prelude

Confession and Forgiveness

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

A: Come, gather in the presence of God with sincerity, offering ourselves as we are in this moment. {pause for reflection} Father, we confess that You remain faithful to us even in the midst of our own unfaithfulness.

C: You are always reaching out to turn us back when we have turned away. You are constantly offering encouraging words of hope when we falter or become discouraged. You are brilliantly enlightening the dimness of our own understandings and expectations through Your wisdom. Forgive our sins and shortcomings. Do not forget or forsake us today or in the days ahead. In all humility, we come seeking the mercy, compassion and grace promised through Christ, Your gift of our salvation.

P: The child who came into the world long ago in the simplicity of the manger and who will come again in great glory, is the sign for us that God is with us, now and always, forgiving our sins, liberating us from our limitations and turning us back to living ever more faithfully. With full trust in God's power and intentions to accomplish all that God has spoken, let us come now with renewed hearts, minds and souls to offer our gifts of prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

C: Amen.

Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

P: God's light breaks into the darkness;

C: And hope and peace shine out.

P: God's Word breaks into the silence;

C: And hope and peace speak out.

P: God's Son breaks into our lives;

C: And hope and peace are known.

Prayer of the Day

P: The Lord be with you

C: And also with you

P: Let us pray:

C: God of Grace and Love, in this season where you have sent the joy and peace of Jesus, stir up your Spirit within us, that as we now light the fourth and final candle of the Advent wreath, we will come and celebrate your great gift, and wait with patient expectation for the fulfilling of His promise to return in glory for a celebration that will have no end. In His name we pray. Amen.

First Lesson

Genesis 17:15-22

God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, for Sarah / Princess is her name. I will bless her, and I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, so she becomes nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."

But Abraham fell on his face and laughed.

He said in his heart, "Can a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Can Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"

And Abraham said to God, "If only my son by Sarai's servant, Hagar, Ishmael might live in your sight!"

God said, "Your wife Sarah will indeed bear you a son, and you will name him Isaac. He laughs. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his seed after him. As for Ishmael, I have heard you; Here, I will make him blessed, I will make him bear fruit, I will make him many, many descendants; he will be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this season next year."

When God had finished talking with Abraham, God went up, from beside Abraham.

Psalm

The Great "O Antiphons" of the Advent Season

These Antiphons are an Advent tradition throughout the Church. Each one begins with a name for Christ and reflects one of his attributes in scripture.

P: O Oriens:

C: O Rising Sun, splendor of light eternal and sun of righteousness: Come and enlighten those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

Antiphon Hymn

257 vs. 1 & 6

O come, O come, Immanuel, and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

O come, O Bright and Morning Star,
and bring us comfort from afar!
Dispel the shadows of the night
and turn our darkness into light.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

Second Lesson

Revelation 12:1-12

And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman enwrapped with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. And she is pregnant and she cries out, laboring, and struggling mightily to deliver.

And another sign was seen in heaven: behold, a great dragon, red-hot, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads, seven diadems. And his tail drags a third of the stars of heaven and throws them into the earth. And the dragon stood right in front of the woman verging on delivery, so that whenever she might birth her baby, he might gobble it up.

And she birthed a male son, who is about to shepherd all the ethnicities with an iron rod that cannot be broken. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to God's throne and the woman fled into the wilderness where she has a place prepared for her from God, so that there the angels may nourish her for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

And a war began in heaven; Michael and his angels fought with the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought, they were not strengthened, and there was no place for them in heaven. And the great dragon, the ancient serpent, the one being called "Devil" and "The Satan," who is leading astray the whole inhabited world was thrown. He was thrown into the earth, and his angels were thrown with him.

Then I heard a great voice in the heaven speaking, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of God's Messiah, because thrown into the earth is the accuser of our comrades, the one accusing them before our God day and night. And they have conquered him on account of the blood of the Lamb and on account of the word of their witnessing - they did not love their lives over death. By this, rejoice then, you heavens and those dwelling in them! Alas, the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his critical time is short!"

Gospel Acclamation

P: The Holy Gospel according to John the 1st chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord!

Gospel

There was a man sent from alongside God whose name was John. He came as a testimony so that he may testify about the light, so that all might have faith through him. He himself was not the light, but he came so that he may testify about the light. It was the true light, which enlightens humanity that was coming into the world. . .

And this is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" And John confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah."

And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

John said, "I am not."

They asked, "Are you the prophet?"

John answered, "No."

Then they said to him, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

John said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'" as the prophet Isaiah said.

And they had been sent from the Pharisees.

And they asked him, "Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

John answered them saying, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, the one who is coming after me - I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal."

This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

P: The Gospel of the Lord! C: Praise to you, O Christ!

Sermon

1 The King shall come when morn-ing dawns and light tri-um-phant breaks,
 2 Not as of old a lit-tle child, to bear and fight and die,
 3 Oh, bright-er than the ris-ing morn when Christ, vic-to-rious, rose
 4 Oh, bright-er than that glo-rious morn shall dawn up-on our race
 5 The King shall come when morn-ing dawns and light and beau-ty brings.

when beau-ty gilds the east-ern hills and life to joy a-wakes.
 but crowned with glo-ry like the sun that lights the morn-ing sky.
 and left the lone-some place of death, de-spite the rage of foes.
 the day when Christ in splen-dor comes, and we shall see his face.
 Hail, Christ the Lord! Your peo-ple pray: come quick-ly, King of kings.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Church and Passing of the Peace

Offering / Offertory & Offertory Prayer

1. We three kings of Orient are;
bearing gifts we traverse afar,
field and fountain, moor and
mountain,
following yonder star.

Refrain:

O star of wonder, star of light,
star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

5. Glorious now behold him
arise;

King and God and sacrifice:

Alleluia, Alleluia,

sounds through the earth and skies. [Refrain]

A: Let us pray:

C: In the midst of this season of preparing to give and receive, we humbly offer these gifts to you, Father, in grateful acknowledgment of the myriad of blessings we have known in our past, know on this day, and are yet to know in the advent of the age to come. We pray that you find our offerings acceptable and pleasing for the sake of your great gift to us, the child in the manger, Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: We give you thanks, Heavenly Father, for the coming of Your Son, the incarnate; born into our humanity to be Emmanuel, God with us, the gift you give for our salvation. Come now, and hear our voices as we join the heavenly chorus in singing his praises:

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the new-born King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo
Gloria in excelsis Deo!

P: Holy God, beginning and end, you embrace all time . . .

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
