ASH Wednesday

February 18 3:00 p.m.
7:00 p.m.

Fear no more the heat o' the sun,
Nor the furious winter's rages;
Thou thy worldly task hast done,
Home art gone and ta'en thy wages:
Golden lads and girls all must,
As chimney-sweepers, come to dust.

Fear no more the frown o' the great;
Thou art past the tyrant's stroke;
Care no more to clothe and eat;
To thee the reed is as the oak;
The sceptre, learning, physic, must
All follow this and come to dust.

Fear no more the lightning-flash,
Nor the all-dreaded thunder-stone;
Fear not slander, censure rash;
Thou hast finish'd joy and moan;
All lovers young, all lovers must Consign to thee and come to dust.

- Shakespeare

Prelude &amp; Entrance Hymn

601

1 Sav-ior, when in dust to you low we bow in hom-age due;
 2 By your help-less in-fant years, by your life of want and tears,
 3 By your hour of dire de-spair, by your ag-o-ny of prayer,
 4 By your deep ex-pir-ing groan, by the sad se-pul-chral stone, when, re-pen-tant, to the skies scarce we lift our weep-ing eyes;

 by your days of deep dis-tress in the sav-age wil-der-ness, by the cross, the nail, the thorn, pierc-ing spear, and tor-tur-ing scorn, by the vault whose dark a-bode held in vain the ris-ing God, oh, by all your pains and woe suf-fered once for us be-low,

 by the dread, mys-te-rious hour of the in-sult-ing tempt-er's pow'r, by the gloom that veiled the skies o'er the dread-ful sac-ri-fice, oh, from earth to heav'n re-stored, might-y, re-as-cend-ed Lord,

bend-ing from your throne on high, hear our pen-i-ten-tial cry!
 turn, oh, turn a fa-v'ring eye; hear our pen-i-ten-tial cry!
 lis-ten to our hum-ble sigh; hear our pen-i-ten-tial cry!
 bend-ing from your throne on high, hear our pen-i-ten-tial cry!

Prayer of the Day

P: The Lord be with you

C: And also with you

P: Let us pray

C: Almighty and ever-living God, you hate nothing you have made and you forgive the sins of all who confess. Create in us new and honest hearts, so that, truly repenting of our sins, we may obtain from you, the God of all mercy, full pardon and forgiveness; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Lesson

Exodus 32

God's people, who Moses had led out of slavery in Egypt and into the freedom of the wilderness, waited at the base of Mt. Sinai for Moses to come back down the mountain after his meeting with God in the cloud and thunder on the mountain top. Eventually they saw that Moses was shamefully-late in coming down. The people assembled against Aaron, Moses' assistant, and said to him, "Get up! Make god – Elohim – which walks in front of us, because this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt - we do not know what has become of him."

Aaron said to them, "Remove the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me."

So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. And he took what they brought in their hands and fashioned it with a tool in to a calf, a molten image.

Then the people said, "These are our gods – our Elohim of Israel - who brought us up out of the land of Egypt!"

When Aaron saw this, he built a slaughter-site before it faces and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow is a festival to Yahweh!"

Everyone woke up early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings and the people sat down to eat and drink and stood up to laugh.

Up on the mountain, Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have wrought ruin. They have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them. They have cast for themselves an image of a calf and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'"

Yahweh said to Moses, "I see this people - and see how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. I will make a great nation from you, instead." But Moses soothed and softened the face of Yahweh, his Elohim and said, "For-what-reason, Yahweh, should your anger flare against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? For-what-reason should the Egyptians say, yes say, 'It was with evil intent that Yahweh brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your flaming anger. Be sorry for the evil intended against your people! Instead, call to your mind Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, and remember how you swore to them – yes, you - saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they will inherit it forever.'"

And Yahweh let himself be sorry concerning the evil that he had spoken of doing to his people.

Then Moses turned his face to come down from the mountain, the two tablets of the covenant in his hands, tablets written on both sides, written on the front and on the back, and the tablets were Elohim's making, and the writing was the writing of Elohim, engraved upon the tablets.

Reader: The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God!

Psalm

103:8-14

The Lord is mercif̄ul and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

The Lord will not always accuse,
nor will the Lord be angry forever.

*The Lord does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.*

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is the Lord's steadfast love toward those who fear the Lord;

*as far as the east is from the west,
so far the Lord removes our transgressions from us.*

As a father has compassion for his children,
so the Lord has compassion for those who fear the Lord.

*For the Lord knows how we were made;
The Lord remembers that we are dust.*

Which one of you thinks they are wise and have understanding? If that's who you think you are, you should show by your good life that everything you do comes from a gentleness that is born from wisdom. But, instead, if your hearts are full of bitter envy and selfish ambition, then don't be boastful and false to the truth that this kind of "wisdom" does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, and devilish. For, where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. On the other hand, the wisdom that does come from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. There will be many blessings of peace for those who make peace.

So, tell me, where do the battles and the fights among you come from? Don't they come from the emotions that are competing within you? You want something and do not have it, so you scheme and build up a "need" to have what you are not really about to have. You struggle and are unsettled. But really, you do not have, because you do not ask. And when you do ask, you do not receive because you are only asking selfishly. . . . Submit yourself, therefore to God and set yourself against the devil and the Devil will flee from you. Draw near to God, and God will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. . . Humble yourselves before the Lord, and the Lord will exalt you.

Do not speak evil against one another, brothers and sisters. Whoever speaks evil against another or judges another, is thinking that they have become the "law" and in doing so, corrupts that law and makes themselves into someone who thinks they are above the law. In reality though, there is one lawgiver and one judge who is able to save and to destroy. So, who, then, are you to judge your neighbor?

Listen up those of you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there, doing business and making money," yet you do not even know what tomorrow will bring. You really think you have total control of your life? Listen, you are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes!

What you should be saying is, "If the Lord wishes, we will live and do this or that."

But, instead, you boast in your arrogance – I tell you - all such boasting is evil. Anyone, then, who knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, commits sin.

Gospel

Matthew 4

Immediatly after his baptism Jesus is taken up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the Devil. Jesus is fasting there for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he is hungry.

And the one tempting having come, he says to Jesus, "Since you are the Son of God, speak so that these stones, loaves may be!"

But Jesus, answering, says, "It is written,

'Not from bread alone will man live,

But on every word going out through the mouth of God. "'

Then the devil took him along into the holy City and stands him on the pinnacle of the Temple and says to him, "Since you are the Son of God, throw yourself down! For it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,'

and 'On their hands they will take you up,

so that you may not strike your foot against a stone."

Jesus said to him, "Again it is written,
'You will not test the Lord your God.'"

Again, the devil takes him to an exceedingly high mountain and shows him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory and he says to him, "All these I will give you, if you may be bowing down to worship me."

Then Jesus says to him, "Be gone, Satan! For it is written,
*'The Lord God you will worship,
and you will offer stewardship only to him.'*"

Then the Devil leaves him and behold, angels come and serve him.

Confession

P: You are to have no other Gods.

C: We are to fear, love and trust God above anything else.

P: You are not to take the Lord's name in vain.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not use His name superstitiously, or use it to curse, swear, lie, or deceive, but call on him in prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

P: You are to remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not neglect His Word and the preaching of it but regard it as holy and gladly hear and learn it.

P: Honor your Mother and Father so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving to you.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not despise or anger our parents and others in right authority, but respect, obey, love, serve them and follow the way of their faith.

P: You are not to kill.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not harm our neighbor in any way but help them in all their physical needs.

P: You are not to commit adultery.

C: We are to fear and love God so that in matters of sex and sexuality our words and conduct are pure and honorable.

P: You are not to steal.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not take our neighbor's property or money, or acquire them dishonestly or unjustly, but help them protect what they have.

P: You are not to bear false witness against your neighbor.

C: We are to fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbor, or betray, slander, or defame them, rather we should speak well of them, and interpret their actions in the kindest way.

P: You are not to covet.

C: We are to fear and love God, and so we should not seek by craftiness to gain any of our neighbor's resources, nor are we to obtain them under pretext of legal right, but we should be of service to them and help to them so that they may keep what is theirs.

Crossing

P: The cross is a sign of our failure to live as God commands; a sign of the death that comes from sin. The cross is also the sign of our salvation, the mark and promise of our baptism.

Therefore, as we make the sign of the cross on our foreheads, let us contemplate both the righteous justice of God and the gracious love of God, for through our Lord Jesus Christ, we have confidence that God is pleased with repentant hearts that confront the truth of sin and turn from it. Let us include ourselves among the penitent, trusting God's mercy and living in obedience to God's command to love.

Those who wish to receive the sign of our submission to God's authority and our gathering in His love may come forward and kneel at the Communion Rail. During the imposition, you may find value in reading and reflecting on Psalm 42. It can be found in the Psalms printed in the front quarter of the hymnal.

P: Accomplish in us, O God, the work of your salvation,

C: that we may show forth your glory in the world.

P: By the cross and passion of your Son, our Savior,

C: bring us with all your saints to the joy of his resurrection.

P: Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life.

Amen.

Hymn

tune: ELW 359

1. "Forgive our sins as we forgive,"
you taught us, Lord to pray;
but you alone can grant us grace
to live the words we say.

2. How can your pardon reach and bless the unforgiving heart that broods on wrongs and will not let,
old bitterness depart?

3. In blazing light your cross reveals the truth we dimly knew:
What trivial debts are owed to us,
how great our debt to you.

4. Lord, cleanse the depths within our souls and bid resentment cease.
Then, bound to all in bonds of love,
our lives will spread your peace.

Passing of the Peace

P: The peace of the Lord be with you all.

C: And also with you.

sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written between the two staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, while the bass clef provides a harmonic accompaniment.
