

Good Friday

P: The Lord be with you

C: And also with you

P: Let us pray:

C: Almighty God, we ask you to look with mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be given over to the hands of sinners and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Septem Voce – The Seven Last Words

the first word

luke 23:32-34

Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with Jesus. When they came to the place that is called “The Skull,” they crucified him there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said . . .

Cantor: “Father forgive them for they know not what they do”

1. Jesus, in thy dying woes,
Even while thy life-blood flows,
Craving pardon for thy foes:
Hear us, holy Jesus.

3. Oh, may we, who mercy need,
Be like thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed:
Hear us, holy Jesus.

2. Savior, for our pardon sue
When our sins thy pangs renew,
For we know not what we do:
Hear us, holy Jesus.

P: Let us pray:

C: As we recall the events of your death, and remember the darkness of that day, we ask that you take away any darkness in our lives, in our hearts, and in our minds. Remove the veils of guilt, hopelessness and fear, that we will see the glory you bring to each of us and the world through your faithfulness. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at Jesus, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!"

The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!"

But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus replied . . .

Cantor: "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

1. Jesus, pitying the sighs
Of the thief who near Thee dies,
Promising him Paradise:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

Calling humbly on Thy Name:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

2. May we in our guilt and shame,
Still Thy love and mercy claim,

3. May our hearts to Thee incline,
Looking from our cross to Thine;
Cheer our souls with hope divine:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

The extinguishing of a candle & silence for meditation

P: Let us pray:

C: Lord Jesus Christ, remember us when you come into your kingdom. Remember us, not for our impressive accomplishments, nor for the virtues we occasionally display. Remember us as those who struggle to remain faithful, who desire to speak well of you with our lives. Remember us as those in need of your benediction and grace. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it."

This was to fulfill what the scripture says,

*"They divided my clothes among themselves,
and for my clothing they cast lots."*

And that is what the soldiers did.

Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother . . .

Cantor: "Woman, behold thy Son. Behold thy mother."

1. Jesus, loving to the end
Her whose hart Thy sorrows rend,
And Thy dearest human friend:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

2. May we in Thy sorrows share,
For Thy sake all peril dare,

And enjoy Thy tender care:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

3. May we all Thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of Thee:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

P: Let us pray:

C: O blessed Savior, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary, as you cared for your family then, continue to care for your family now. Bring your community together so that we may support one another in all our needs. May we especially be the source of your compassion for those who are mourning, for the widows and for any who have no one to care for them. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

the fourth word

matthew 27:45-49

From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

And our hope seems far away, | 3. Though no Father seem to hear,

P: Let us pray:

C: Holy God, you always hear our cries and listen to our sorrows. We trust in your promise that you will never forsake us. And so we confess to you those times when we have forsaken others and ask that you strengthen us in our faithfulness to our word. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

All thy holy work fulfill: | 3. May we thirst thy love to know;
Lead us in our sin and woe
Where the healing waters flow:
Hear us, holy Jesus. |

The extinguishing of a candle & silence for meditation

P: Let us pray:

C: O blessed Savior, you never leave us hungering or thirsting, but fill our souls by the invitation to your table and your presence. As we are fed by you, let us not forget to provide for the needs of our neighbors; giving drink to the thirsty, food to the hungry, treatment to the ill, love to the forgotten, and forgiveness to the repentant. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

the sixth word

John 19:30

A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth.
When Jesus had received the wine, he said . . .

Cantor: "It is finished."

1. Jesus, all our ransom paid,
All Thy Father's will obeyed;
By Thy sufferings perfect made:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

2. Save us in our soul's distress;
Be our help to cheer and bless,
While we grow in holiness:

Hear us, Holy Jesus.

3. Brighten all our heavenward
way
With an ever holier ray,
Till we pass to perfect day:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

The extinguishing of a candle & silence for meditation

P: Let us pray:

C: Lord Jesus, you finished the work you were sent to do. Now enable us, by your Holy Spirit, to be faithful to our call to accomplish the work you have called us to do. Do not let us grow complacent or weary in the face of all that needs to be done. Give us the confidence to work in the hope that you will bring all good works to their fulfillment on that great day when you return in the fullness of your glory. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

the seventh word

LUKE 23:44-56

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.
Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said . . .

Cantor: "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Jesus, all thy labor vast,
All Thy woe and conflict past;
Yielding up thy soul at last:
Hear us, holy Jesus. | Keep us in that trial hour:
Hear us, holy Jesus. |
| 2. When the death shades round us low'r,
Guard us from the tempter's pow'r, | 3. May thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high:
Hear us, holy Jesus. |

But saying this, Jesus breathed his last.

Behold, when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent."

And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts. But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph, who, though a member of the council, had not agreed to their plan and action. He came from the Jewish town of Arimathea, and he was waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid it in a rock-hewn tomb where no one had ever been laid.

[A loud sound signifies the closing of the tomb]

It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning. The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid. Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments.

A period of prayer and meditation may be observed. Contemplation might focus on: times when you have abandoned Christ or felt abandoned by Him; times when God's leading in your life did not take the direction you expected; times of waiting; your sins which Christ takes to the grave for you; the joyful memories of our beloved who have died and for whom we wait in the coming day of resurrection.

Please leave in silence
